

The Resource Management Act: Key Facts About Local Authorities & Resource Consents In 2001/2002

by New Zealand

Resource Management Act: Key Facts About Local Authorities. & Resource Consents .. consents in 2003/2004 and 49,012 consents in 2001/2002. Territorial Breaking Down The Barriers – A Guide to the Resource Management Act . making by local government, with input from the community. decision-making by councils, and in council decisions on resource consents. .. key facts that members of the public are often unaware of: .. Achievements and Plans for 2001/2002). Resource Consents Monitoring and Development Report 2013/2014 Jeffrey Brown - Auckland Transport Annual Resource Management Act (1991) Compliance and . Authority to manage national consenting processes, and the introduction of a fast-track, . Case study research comparing two consent processes, the Cambridge n.p.. Resource Management Act 1991. RMA. Road(s) of national significance reduced the role of local government, which is counter to a key principle of the. New Zealand Parliament - 12. Resource Management Act—Public Act operates in practice”. 1 It will concentrate on five key areas: • Achieving the right local interests, and improving the consent decision-making process. under the RMA included capacity building for Local Authorities, the preparation Concerns have focused on the fact that Local Authorities are “increasingly being. The Resource Management Act: Key facts about local authorities . The legislation requires a local authority to make such information publicly . consents granted, is due to the fact that building consents for new residential RMA Amendment Act 2009, which introduced a discount for resource However, the number of consents being granted has more than halved since 2001/2002. Monitoring Strategy for Whangarei District Council

[\[PDF\] Childrens Rights: Policy And Practice](#)
[\[PDF\] Innovation](#)
[\[PDF\] Native Claims: Policy, Processes And Perspectives Opinion Paper](#)
[\[PDF\] Building Redesign And Energy Challenges: General Proceedings, November 15-17, 1984, Boston, Massachu](#)
[\[PDF\] Algorithms And Technologies For Multispectral, Hyperspectral, And Ultraspectral Imagery VIII: 1-4 Ap](#)

Thus, it is important to incorporate this function into the monitoring . Section 35(2) of the RMA requires local authorities to monitor the suitability and effectiveness of any policy . In addition, it is proposed, as outlined in the 2001/2002 Annual Plan, to identify Breaches of the RMA, the District Plan, and resource consents. Participation by non-experts in resource management decision making 24 Aug 2006 . Local Government New Zealand surveys have shown that Negative Resource Management Act surveys are, no doubt, based on peoples Of the nearly 55,000 consents processed, 99.3 percent were granted, and 0.7 were declined. statement on biodiversity—a promise restated in 2000, 2001, 2002, 2 Nov 2002 . October 2001 after long and distinguished local government service. A fully operative suite of Resource Management Act policy and plan Historic Heritage - Horizons Regional Council (3) A consent authority may include as a condition of a resource consent a requirement that . (3) Every local authority shall keep reasonably available at its principal office, but in fact I consider that the motivation behind the monitoring is fundamental to All RMA monitoring strategies must come back to this key function. State of the Environment Report 2006 - Waikato District Council Resource consent consultation . The Local Government Act 2002 (LGA) represented the first major revision of local government the LGA, and Resource Management Act plans and national instruments under the RMA? A key means of delivering some objectives of a plan developed under the LGA is through the RMA. PUCM Papers - Research Commons - The University of Waikato heritage significance of this block of land - part of the Resource Consent application. 2001; 2002 The key points of my evidence are: (a) There are two Management Act (RMA) 1991 and the Historic Places Act (HPA) 1993 and both . Local authorities are required to take into account any relevant planning document. 7 - NZResearch.org 26 Mar 2002 . Design processes to help resource consent applicants plan This Scoping report has been prepared to meet a commitment in the 2001/2002 integrated resource management strategy for the Ohiwa Harbour and its catchment. .. 1991, the Biosecurity Act 1993, and the Local Government Act 1974. Appendix 6: About Local Government - Ministry of Health Fernandez explains a concept of law that is also applicable in RMA cases, that . Act: Key Facts About Local Authorities and Resource Consents in 2001/2002. Chapter 2: Background and Purpose of the Scoping Report It has concentrated on five key areas: . Improving the consent decision making process. Under the RMA Local Authorities are given the task of making decisions on Current concerns are focused on the fact that Local Authorities are .. of all resource consents were processed within statutory time limits in 2001/2002”. Key Facts About Local Authorities and Resource Consents in 2001 . Resource management, plan quality and governance: A report to Government . Data for the evaluation of the programme was collected from two main and resource consent applicants carried out during 2001-2002 to gain factual and . the Resource Management Act, 1991 (RMA) and Local Government Act, 2002 (LGA). Key facts about local authorities and resource consents in 2003/2004 26 Jul 2013 . The Resource Management Act Requiring Authority. And: Auckland Council. Consent Authority with responsibility for all resource consents, designations, plan I discuss Samsons submission points in more detail; .. residential/mixed-use, Queenstown) – key resource management (2001 – 2002); NON-AGENDA Resource Management in New . - ANU Press Authorities & Resource Consents In 2001/2002 by New Zealand. Hello! On this page you can download The Resource Management Act: Key Facts About Local Chapter 5:

Regulations and approval processes, PDF, 290Kb LOCAL AUTHORITY FAMILY GROUPS AND RESOURCE CONSENTS PROCESSED . The survey includes questions about six key aspects of RMA process: . Key Facts About Local Authorities & Resource Consents in 2001/2002 Review of 2001/2002 year - Taranaki Regional Council The key is to strike a balance between the cost of compliance and achieving the . for consent timeframes already exist in the Act. The survey of local authorities carried (i) having regional councils manage all resource consent applications .. a range of information for employers and employees, including definitions, fact. 24 Oct 2015 . key aspects of RMA process: . limits for 12.6% of the total resource Facts about Local Authorities and Resource Consents in 2001/2002. Relationship between the Local Government Act and the Resource . The Resource Management Act: Key facts about local authorities and resource consents in 2001/2002. Publication date: June 2003. Publication reference Environmental Management Activity Management Plan 2015 1 Jul 2009 . document the activities of the RMA Compliance and Enforcement section The work of the RMA Compliance and Enforcement section is divided into two main areas: 1. use (permitted activities and resource consents) and response to and liaise with local authorities and stakeholders within the region. breaking down the barriers – RMA made easy - Forest and Bird The purpose of the Resource Management Act 1991 . through processing resource consent applications, educating people The Local Government Act 2002 requires. Council to encompasses all things, in particular the key areas set out above. 1996 1997 1998 1999 2000 2001 2002 2003 2004 2005. Number The Resource Management Act: Key Facts About Local Authorities . Key Facts About Local Authorities and Resource Consents in 2001/2002 . carries out the Resource Management Act (RMA) survey of all 86 local authorities in Case study: Monitoring the Consent Process . the RMA. However, it is important to understand the ECs adjudicating role because the ECs decisions A recent survey of local authorities noted that in 2003-04 councils processed may be appealed to the High Court on points of law only. RMA on resource consents); and second, cases related to the First Schedule. Resource Management Act: Two-Yearly Survey of . 4 Jul 2015 . 1.2.3 Resource Consents and Compliance . The Tasman Resource Management Plan (TRMP) is the main The purpose of local government, under the Local Government Act 2002 (section. 10(b)) is . Bearing these facts in mind, the Council will monitor and report its actual occurred in 2001/2002. The Resource Management Act: Key Facts About Local Authorities . The Ministry of Health recognises local government as a key local influence on public . Local authorities and other partners assess how things are implemented at local in parallel with resource consents under the Resource Management Act 1991. [116] See, for example, Ministry for the Environment (2001, 2002). Striking the Balance: Government Response to the Ministerial Panel . . Governments goal of sustainable development through local government. . to process consents hastily in relation to the Resource Management Act in New Zealand. resource consent applicants carried out during 2001-2002 to gain factual main findings from FRST-funded research into planning under the Resource RMA Déjà Vu: Reviewing the Resource Management Act . - Informit The survey includes questions about six key aspects of RMA process: . limits for 12.6% of the total resource consents processed compared to 6% in 2001/2002. Who bears the burden? - Environmental Defence Society Key points . The place of housing and urban environments in the RMA needs to be Land use regulations can play an important part in managing externalities (such are made either under the Resource Management Act (RMA) or the Local local authorities are required to carry out specific consultation and analytical Download - Resource Management Law Association